Vienna, September 14.

THIS Morning at Seven a-Clock the Empreſs was brought to Bed of an Archdutcheſs, Infanta of Spain, &c. which will be baptized this Evening, and Prince Eugene of Savoy is to be God-father: The Court has received by an Expreſs, Letters from the Viceroy of Naples dated the 3d of this Month, with Advice that Count Staremberg, Nephew of the Field-Marſhal and Lieutenant-Collonel of his Regiment, had reinforced the Piemonteſe Garriſons of the Citadel of Meſſina and Fort St. Salvador with ſome German Troops: And that there was Advice from Sicily, that moſt of the Inhabitants appeared ready to declare for the Emperour, finding they were like to be ſoon brought under his Dominion. The Procurator Sig. Ruzzini, who aſſiſted at the Congreſs of Paſſarowitz in the Quality of Ambaſſadour Plenipotentiary of the Republick of Venice, arrived here on the 11th Inſtant. The Report continues, that the Count de Virmond is to go to reſide at Conſtantinople, with the Character of the Emperour's Ambaſſadour; and that the firſt Ambaſſadour of the Ottoman Porte at the Congreſs of Paſſarowitz, is to come to reſide here on the Part of the Grand Signior. Letters from Tranſilvania relate, That the Grand Signior had ordered a conſiderable Body of Troops to march towards the Ukraine, and that the Cham of the Tartars was expected at Adrianople, to aſſiſt at a great Divan. 'Tis ſaid the Ottoman Porte inſiſt on the Departure of the Ruſſian Troops out of Poland, and on the Execution of the 5th Article of the Treaty of Pruth.

Bern, Sept. 21. On the 13th Inſtant the Abbot of St. Gall received the Homage of the People of Tockembourg, who were aſſembled in common to the Number of Eleven Thouſand Four Hundred Heads, from the Age of Fourteen to Seventy. The Abbot came in Perſon to the Aſſembly with a Train of 400 Horſe, and returned the ſame Day to Weyl, where he has ſince ſettled his Officers throughout the whole Extent of his Dominions. On the 16th Inſtant the Sovereign Council met to adjourn themſelves for a Month on Account of the Vintage Seaſon, which according to Cuſtom cauſes a Receſs from all manner of Buſineſs here. They write from Milan of the 13th Inſtant, that they had received Advice from Turin, that the Marquis of St. Thomas, Chief Miniſter of that Court, who went lately to Vienna, was to proceed from thence to Paris and the Hague, in order to ſollicit the Admiſſion of the King his Maſter into the Quadruple Alliance. The ſame Letters add, that Part of the Regiment of Berezeni was already arrived at Mantua, where ſeveral other Regiments of Horſe and Dragoons were likewiſe expected, in order to march into the Kingdom of Naples.

Francfort, Sept. 21. The Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel continues to remove what belongs to him out of the Fortreſs of Rhinfels, and 'tis expected his Troops will evacuate it forthwith, to make room for a Garriſon of the Troops of the Circles. Some Advices from Italy ſay, That the Inhabitants of Saſſari in Sardinia, upon the News of the Defeat of the Spaniſh Fleet, revolted and maſſacred the Garriſon. That a Deſign was alſo formed againſt the Garriſon of Cagliari, but the Governour getting Intelligence of it, prevented its being put in Execution.

Bruſſels, Sept. 24. The Night between the 22d and 23d Inſtant, 4 or 500 of the Rabble got together, and pulled down ſome Publick Houſes near the Chappel of Notre-Dame. The Governour having Notice of this Commotion, immediately ſent for Orders to the Marqueſs de Prié, who commanded him to call
